

A German Shepherd dog stands in a forest, wearing a tactical vest. A smaller, tan-colored dog sits in front of it. The background is a misty forest with tall trees and ferns.

What if Canines (K9s) Killed?

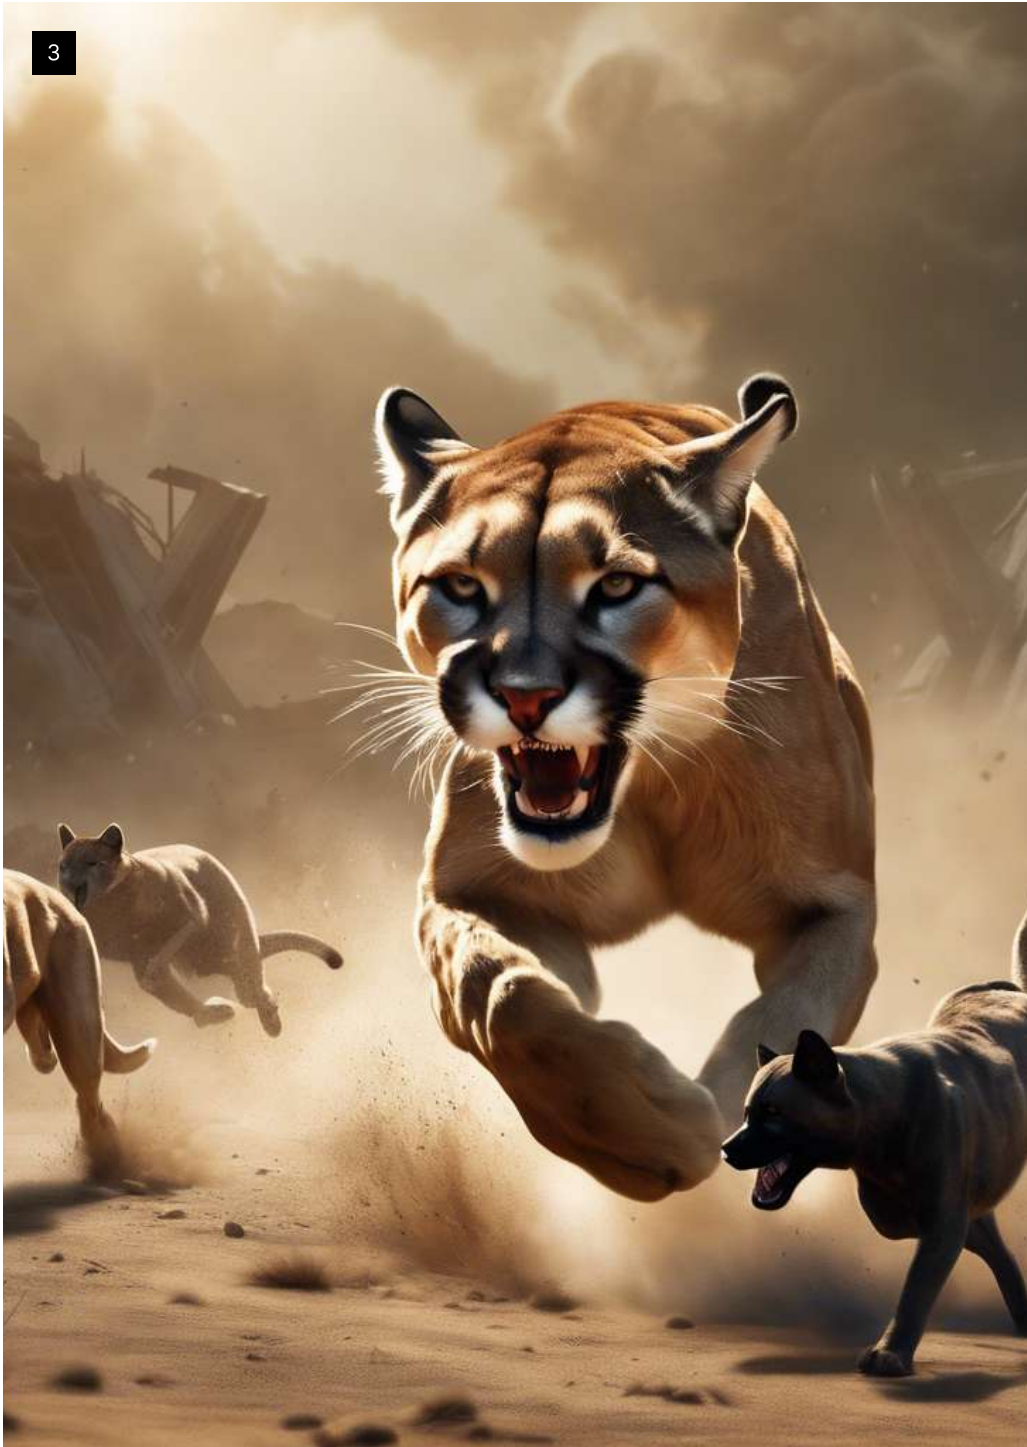

What if K-9s Killed? A Husky and K9 Story

First, a K9 and mom K9 were out hunting. They were looking for a long time. They heard a noise.

It was a strange noise. It sounded like branches on a bush crackling.

Suddenly, a cougar pounced up on them. Then the K9's mom pounced on the cougar. The cougar and mom K9 had a big fight. There was branches flying everywhere and trees shifting around the forest. There was howling, crying, with scratched faces.

Suddenly, the K9's mom lost the fight and died.

Then the K9 fled the scene to find a friend. Soon, he came across a lost husky and they became friends. Then, they trained to get food together.

They trained and trained and trained and finally they went out hunting. To be continued...